

7th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Welcome to 7th grade!

Your first assignment is to read TWO books over the summer. The first is CS Lewis' Prince Caspian (distributed in class). The second is a book of your choice. For the book of your choice, it either must be from the recommended books list (found below), or another book that is challenging enough to be suitable for a 7th grade (or higher!) reading level. Use the books listed below as examples for what that 'difficulty' looks like.

Recommended books:

- Any of the other Narnia books.
- Anything by JRR Tolkien (we will be starting the year with Fellowship of the Ring, so if you haven't read The Hobbit, I highly recommend that one).
- Little Women, by Louisa May Alcott
- Anything by William Shakespeare (we will be reading Macbeth and The Tempest this year).
- Treasure Island, Kidnapped, or The Swiss Family Robinson, by Robert Lewis Stevenson - The Princess and the Goblin, by George MacDonald
- White Fang by Jack London
- The Sign of the Beaver or My Side of the Mountain by Jean Craighead George - King Arthur and His Knights of the Round Table by Roger Lancelyn Green - Anne of Green Gables, by Lucy Maud Montgomery

For the book of your choice, fill out the following form.
Use COMPLETE sentences:

Your name:

The book you read:

A brief summary of the book (don't just copy from the back!):

What are some parts of this book that you enjoyed?:

What are some parts that you disliked? Why?:

Would you recommend this book? Why or why not?:

For Prince Caspian, answer the following questions in COMPLETE sentences:

A brief summary of the book (don't just copy from the back!):

Is Miraz a good king? Why or why not?:

Is Prince Caspian a good leader? Why or why not?:

Is High King Peter a good leader? Why or why not?: